In-Person- Wednesdays (Feb. 21 and March 6, 13, and 20) from 11:00 AM- 12:00 PM in person at the church, Room 205. Lenten studies generally focus on the life and crucifixion of Jesus, seldom on the resurrection of Jesus. This four-week study will take a fresh look at the resurrection stories from the four gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. How are the four accounts alike and how are they different? What does it mean “Jesus rose from the dead” and what is “the resurrection of the body”? What is the difference between the resurrection and the ascension? What other questions do you have about the resurrection of Jesus? This study led by Marg Kutz. There is no study book except the Bible and no assignments. Sign up on the pew pad today, or contact Marg Kutz at margkutz72@gmail.com or 804-305-6100. Questions? Please see Pastor Chad or Juliana Paradie

Pastor Nathan challenges you this Lent to:

- Give up saying, "Everyone I know goes to church" (in fact, less than 20% of people go anywhere).
- Give up saying, "I am too busy to pray today". (this is how we remember who we are and Whose we are)
- Give up your fear of talking about your church and faith to someone you know who doesn't go to church.
- Give up thinking the public is unspiritual. Over 70% of all age generations are spiritual.
- Give up saying, "When my kids were young they always came to Sunday School, why can't parents today?" It is a far-different culture and world today with many different Sunday morning schedules and impossible choices for parents.
- Give up on the notion that you will "die" if you invite someone. You won't die and a friend will be so thankful you did invite them.
- Give up criticizing your Pastor and other lay leaders and get busy meeting someone new.

Congratulations Pastor Chad!

We congratulate Pastor Chad Beck, as he was recently recommended for ordination as an Elder by the Board of Ordained Ministry. We look forward to his ordination at Annual Conference in June in Hampton, VA.
